

Remote Control Support

Our Instant Remote Control Support program allows us to take control of your PC over the Internet to provide you with an even quicker service when things go wrong.

All you have to do is download the program and we will direct you through a few mouse clicks to allow us to “be in front of” your PC wherever you are. The remote control session is at your invitation only and at the end of the session, the software removes itself.